Music: My Queen is Albertina Sisulu by Sons of Kemet

Costume Design: Noelle Kayser

Choreographers Note: "Glad for the Rain" is a contemporary dance work inspired by the Great Chicago Fire of 1871, exploring the city's rebirth through the lenses of class and immigration. Rooted in archival research, the piece honors the resilience of trade workers, mothers, and artists who helped reconstruct Chicago's physical and cultural foundations. Through movement, audiences are invited to reflect on how the city responded to tragedy—and who truly rebuilt it.
